Chairman's Report to the Shareholders
Fourth Quarter Ended December 31, 2020

Dear Shareholders,

On behalf of the board of directors, I am pleased to present the unaudited financial results of MPC Caribbean Clean Energy Limited (Company or MPCCEL) for the fourth quarter ended December 31, 2020.

Fourth Quarter 2020 Activities

During the fourth quarter, the Trinidad and Tobago Securities and Exchange Commission approved the USD 10 million convertible promissory note issued by the Company and subscribed by RBC Trust (Trinidad and Tobago). The convertible promissory note does not bear a fixed coupon or interest, but allows for a profit participation and is convertible into Class B shares in 2023 subject to approval by the AGM. The convertible promissory note is recognized on the balance sheet as a long term liability. After a satisfactory KYC process, MPCCEL will make a third investment into MPC Caribbean Clean Energy Fund LLC (the Investment Company).

Furthermore, the Investment Company has signed the acquisition of the 6.4 MWp solar park San Isidro (San Isidro) located in El Salvador in December 2020 with subsequent closing in early March 2021. San Isidro became the third asset acquired by the MPC Caribbean Clean Energy Fund LLC.

Portfolio Highlights

The below KPIs reflect the pro-rated share of the Company in the financial performance of the underlying investees of the Investment Company as well as the average technical performance at the collective portfolio level.

KPI	Q4 2020
EBITDA	US$ 845,423.74
Energy Output Variation	-8.93%
Weighted Average Availability	97.79%

The Energy Output Variation is calculated as an accumulated difference of the actual generated energy (kWh) and the forecast (P50) energy output for the relevant period. P50 is essentially a statistical level of confidence and basis for our predicted energy generation.

Availability is defined as the percentage of time during a month that the wind turbine is operations-ready and available to produce power. This is independent of whether or not enough wind is available for the wind turbine to produce power. In regards to solar parks, it is the proportion of time that the is operations-ready and usable to produce power over a specified time period.

Please note that the productive irradiation hours and wind speeds are depending on short (daily), mid (monthly) and long-term (annual and multi-year) weather patterns. Therefore, the high degree of variability of revenue and cost patterns are shown and revenue and costs are not equally distributed throughout the year. Subsequently, the KPI are most meaningful in an annual comparison or with previous years' quarter (meaning comparing for instance Q4 of year (t) with Q4 of year (t-1) rather than with Q3 of year (t)).

Operations of the wind farm Tilawind were un-affected by COVID-19 during 2020, despite the existence of mobility restrictions and infection rates reported Costa Rica. However, the generation continues to be lower than forecasted due to the previously communicated La Niña period which causes poor weather conditions. Additionally, blade repairs were carried out by the O&M provider and during this process cracks identified on blades from three of the wind turbines were repaired between October and November. Another four blades were repaired given the damage caused by erosion in the leading edge. The blade repairs produced a total of 438 hours of turbine downtime, which resulted in lower availability during the quarter.

During the fourth quarter, the performance issues of Paradise Park caused by damaged DC cable decreased considerably compared to previous quarter and as a result, the performance of the plant significantly increased. Nevertheless, irradiation during the quarter was below the forecast, mostly because of the impact of hurricane Iota during the month of November. Consequently, the performance of the plant was negatively affected and the actual revenues were lower than forecasted.

Outlook

The repair of blades in the Tilawind wind farm and the permanent replacement of all damaged DC cables at Paradise Park are expected to be completed in the first half of 2021.

I thank our shareholders and my fellow directors for their support and trust during this precedent period.

Respectfully Yours,
For and on behalf of the Company
